BILLING CODE 4310-70-P

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 43 CFR 10.10 (a)(3), of the intent to repatriate a cultural item in the possession of the American Museum of Natural History which meets the definition of "object of cultural patrimony" under Section 2 of the Act.

The cultural item is a San Carlos Apache cap made of hide (buckskin), feathers, beads (glass), sinew, pigment, and thread.

In 1910, Pliny E. Goddard collected this cultural item on the San Carlos Apache Reservation on behalf of the American Museum of Natural History. The Museum accessioned the cap into its collection the same year (AMNH Accession Number 1910-22).

The cultural affiliation of this item is San Carlos Apache as indicated through Museum records and consultation with representatives of the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation. Consultation evidence presented by representatives of the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation indicates that this item has ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the tribe itself, and no individual had the right to alienate it at the time of acquisition.

Based on the above-mentioned information, officials of the American Museum of Natural History have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(4), this cultural item has ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the culture itself, and could not have been alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual. Officials of the American Museum of Natural History have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between this item and the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation.

Authorities of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service have been contacted regarding applicability of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, the Bald Eagle Act, the Golden Eagle Act, and the Endangered Species Act to this transfer and have concurred in the conclusion that the object is not covered due to its age.

This notice has been sent to officials of the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation, the White Mountain Apache Tribe of the Fort Apache Reservation, the Fort McDowell Mohave-Apache Indian Community of the Fort McDowell Indian Reservation, the Tonto Apache Tribe of Arizona, the Yavapai-Apache Indian Community of
